^{1/} This does not include on-going benefits for households, e.g. Workfare Income Supplement (WIS) and Workfare Training Scheme (WTS).

^{2/} The benefits by property type indicated are based on the general AV value for each property type. For the exact amount of benefits you will receive in 2010, please refer to your notification letter from CPF Board and MOE.

^{3/} Only for newly eligible citizens.

^{4/} Only for NSFs who begin serving their National Service in 2009, and NS Men / Ex-NS men who have not previously received the additional $100.

^{5/} Only for low wage workers aged over 35 years old earning a monthly salary of up to $1,500. Figures in the table illustrate how much an employee earning a monthly income of $1,000 may receive in 2010 for work done in 2009. Exact amount of Workfare and Workfare Special Payment will vary depending on individual age and income.

^{6/} Based on average S&CC and rental rates. Actual rebates will vary depending on monthly S&CC and rental payable by your household.

You can use the Household Benefits Calculator available online at app.singaporebudget.gov.sg/budget_2010/hbc/index.asp to calculate all the benefits including Workfare (WIS) and Workfare Special Payment that you and your household stand to receive in 2010.
